CURRENT ARCHITECTURE

A final look at Brussels 104

A retrospective appraisal of one of history's most successful exhibition buildings—the U.S. pavilion at the Brussels Fair.

Factories planned for people 128

Four examples of good planning and architecture used to reduce employee problems:

1. Lockheed's blueprint for growth.
2. Texas Instrument builds a 300-acre industrial park.
3. McDonnell Aircraft's environment for engineers.
4. IBM's protected surroundings.

THE BUSINESS OF BUILDING

1959: Building's first $50-billion year 110

FORUM's annual forecast of the building outlook indicates that the boom in public building will help push next year's building outlays 5 per cent above this year.

New schools for "free" 120

Some home builders, including William Levitt, are providing schools with their houses.

GALLERY

Ship shapes and shadows 122

Time adds a softening touch to the lines and forms of ships as well as to buildings.

ART OF ARCHITECTURE

Temple on a hilltop — almost 114

Criticism of the new headquarters building for the Guarantee Mutual Life Insurance Co. in Omaha, Nebraska.

Mr. Robie knew what he wanted 126
