ART OF ARCHITECTURE

Precision amid chaos 102

I. M. Pei sets a poised Franklin National Bank building on Long Island.

How to site a school 117

Balanced on rolling ground, the two elements of this junior high in Needham, Mass. are bridged and combined by The Architects Collaborative.

The motor-pool Hilton 122

Guests at San Francisco's Hilton, as projected by Architect William Tabler, will be able to drive up a ramp to park at bedside.

Saying nothing, going nowhere 134

Washington's controversial new Senate Office Building has worse faults than high cost: it fails to dramatize how government works—a criticism.

CITY BUILDING

Blockbuster in Dallas 94

Welton Becket's Southland Center brings height and open space to downtown Dallas. But a pedestrian tour of the city, described on page 99, shows that it takes more than a heap of giant-sized buildings to make a city.

Miami Beach: Dream Dump, U.S.A. 131

The Beach's unconsciously cruel parody of modern architecture—a gallery.

Business in a botanical garden 108

If every downtown had an attraction like Copenhagen's Tivoli Garden, more people and more dollars would come to rest and play in the city.

BUSINESS OF BUILDING

The 100 biggest architects 114

Since last year's volume rankings, time has wrought interesting changes.

Revolution in hospitals 127

Changes in medical concepts and practice are shaping a revolutionary instrument—the total center—and a ten-year boom in hospital building.

TECHNOLOGY

Wood moves out of the woods 138

Such is the vigor of long overdue research in wood and of the structures that have resulted, it is almost as if a new material had been invented.
