CONTENTS FOR OCTOBER-NOVEMBER 1946

We cover the months of October and November in this single issue in an attempt to adjust publication schedules which were so completely disrupted by the war years. Problems of production and materials are on the way to what we hope is a solution that can bring everything together at the same time. We are now able to set a procedure that will have us off the presses with more predictable regularity. May we thank our many readers and advertisers for their patience and forbearance. The Editor.
