

JANUARY 1939

ALUMNAE HOUSE, SMITH COLLEGE	2
A restatement of traditional forms to fit the amenities and functions of today.
HOUSES	9
More case histories in the small house series . . . Interior-exterior photographs . . . floor plans . . . critical comment . . . cost data . . . construction outlines.
GERMAN CHURCHES	22
Two superlative ecclesiastical structures, built shortly before the end of the German Republic.
RAYON PLANT	28
A windowless, completely air conditioned factory to house a new continuous spinning process.
NEWSPAPER PLANT	33
A modern building combining the character of a memorial and factory, for a Toronto daily newspaper.
GLASS	37
A portfolio of winning entries in the second annual Pittsburgh Glass Institute Competition.
PRODUCTS &amp; PRACTICE	55
Radiant Heating: Theory and practice . . . examples from here and abroad . . . ceiling heating . . . floor heating . . . wall heating.
BUILDING MONEY	61
A building forecast for 1939 . . . An Oregon realtor carries his eggs in ten subdivisions . . . FSA and T.C.I. produce a suite of five steel farm buildings . . . USHA accounts for its $800 million; and inventory of housing operations to date . . . Three down-payment variations help rid building and loaners of acquired properties . . . FHLBB's small house cost index.
MONTH IN BUILDING	2
THE ARCHITECT'S WORLD	11
Digest of architectural thought: historic, personal, controversial, constructive.
THE DIARY	17
A personal viewpoint on men, words and deeds.
BOOKS	22
An illustrated history of the Bauhaus, covering the period from 1919 to 1928.
FORUM OF EVENTS	26
Chicago throws a Beaux-Arts Ball.
LETTERS	28