

SEPTEMBER 1939

WHITESTONE BRIDGE	146
Newest in a long line of distinguished American suspension bridges.
REHABILITATED SLUMS	149
Private enterprise remodels 500 Philadelphia houses, produces rents of $3 to $5 per room, profits of more than 10 per cent.
RESIDENTIAL REMODELING	157
A portfolio of ten recent house alterations, including town and country residences.
COOLSPRING SCHOOL	173
A modern school building designed around an unusual heating system.
DORMITORY FOR CHERRY LAWN SCHOOL	176
A successful experiment in the use of plywood for speed and economy.
EXPOSITION HOMES	179
Eight houses selected from the San Francisco Exposition Model Homes Tour, with plans, cost data and construction information.
THE ARCHITECT'S WORLD	195
Thoughts on a vulgar art, cubism and functionalism, reading, an American standard of living, the why and wherefore of museums.
THE DIARY	199
Personalities, events, comments—from a personal viewpoint.
PRODUCTS &amp; PRACTICE	201
Architectural Acoustics, II
BUILDING MONEY	205
Homestead tax exemption is a relief to the homeowner, a headache to the State government—THE FORUM examines thirteen case histories, discovers why . . . Henry Ford turns subdivider, rental houser, but leaves modern production technique in his automobile plants . . . A Washington subdivision of standardized houses—one of four in a one-man building boomlet . . . Two aids to home cost finding—monthly FHA-insured mortgage payments and other home ownership costs . . . The debut of modern architecture in FHA-insured rental housing spotlights Raleigh, North Carolina . . . Building's statistics charted and tabulated.
MONTH IN BUILDING	2
FORUM OF EVENTS	10
BOOKS	20
LETTERS	22