

Contents

Cover by Derek Boshier.

- 263 Cosmorama
- 265 Exhibitions
- 267 Catalogue

MODELS OF ENVIRONMENT

- 275 Polemic for a structural revolution, edited by Lionel March, Marcial Echenique, Peter Dickens
- 276 THE CITY SCALE An approach to urban studies, Marcial Echenique
- 277 A model of the urban spatial structure, Marcial Echenique
- 281 Data bank for urban models, Richard Baxter
- 282 Testing the model, David Crowther
- 286 Using models for new town design, Walton Lindsay
- 288 Using models for structural plans, Robert Cheeseman, Martha Porzecanski

- 292 THE INTERMEDIATE SCALE
The modelling of day to day activity patterns, Nicholas Bullock, Peter Dickens, Philip Steadman, Edward Taylor, Janet Tomlinson.
- 294 The simulation of university activities
- 298 The timetable as a model of schedule activities.
- 299 Diary surveys
- 300 Patterns of student activities
- 306 A simple optimizing model of site location, Lee Hall, Michael Wildblood, Michael James.

- 308 THE BUILDING SCALE
A set theoretic description of built form, Lionel March, Philip Steadman
 - 309 An environmental model: computer representation, Dean Hawkes
 - 312 An environmental model as an experimental apparatus
 - 314 Evaluating circulation performance, Tom Willoughby
 - 315 Structures of organization, Philip Tabor
 - 319 The analysis of a complex web of associations,
 - 320 Electrical networks and mosaics of rectangles, L. March, P. Steadman.
-
- 333 Odds and. . .
Next month: Cedric Price survey, part 3; Norman Foster Associates office for IBM; Robin Evans offers notes towards the definition of wall and Reyner Banham reviews Sigfried Giedion's last book.