Woodhenge. Capsules. Information city. A cybernetic approach. Natural architecture. Marine cities.

13 Pick of the Projects: fifth announcement

14 Free University, Berlin

A description of the latest building to be completed embodying the philosophies of Team 10. The building is described by Manfred Schiedhelm of Candilis, Josic, Woods and Schiedhelm, the architects of the University.

18 Solar energy part II

Colin Moorcraft continues his survey of ways of harnessing the sun's energy, while suggesting that it must not be seen merely as a substitute for existing energy systems.

30 Briefing: Centres for storage and distribution

Jolyon Drury surveys the historical and current situation of storage and distribution techniques, with particular emphasis on mechanical handling techniques. Drury believes that in the future the field must involve integrated planning and control rather than off-the-peg systems.

38 Interactions and transformations: urban structure and urban form

Peter Smithson's essay based on observations of Houston, Texas.

41 Toronto notebook

Gerry Foley describes the fastest growing city on the North American continent. Nevertheless it looks well as a city and is 'clean, safe and well run'. Eberhard Zeidler describes the playground that he designed for children to find outlets for their creative and physical energies.
