

CONTENTS

- 268 Round-up
Views of Karlsplatz Station (dismantled and rebuilt), the RIBA Awards and Vincent Scully at Kingston.
- 272 MICHAEL GRAVES
A selection from his recent exhibition at the Max Protetch Gallery in New York.
Two pages of colour plates taken from Architectural Monograph No. 5, followed by Vincent Scully's review.
- 279 Arts
Robert Melville discusses Jean Leymarie's book on Balthus.
- 282 Exhibition Review
Wells Coates: Ian Latham on the exhibition and opening symposium at Oxford's Museum of Modern Art.
- 284 Books
Doctrines of the City, reviewed by Doug Clelland.
Modern Housing Prototypes, reviewed by David Dunster.
Pioneers of Prefabrication, reviewed by Peter Dunican.
Funzione e Senso, reviewed by Thom Gorst.
The Rationalists, reviewed by Gavin Stamp.
- 291 Books Received
- 292 Competition Review
A report on the Les Halles competition
- 296 Buildings in AD
Franz C Demblin: three lakeside houses and a Vienna competition entry.
- AD PROFILES 24: BRITAIN IN THE THIRTIES
Gavin Stamp et al provide critical perspectives on British architecture in the Thirties, examining a number of hitherto neglected aspects of the decade. With contributions by Colin Amery, Stephen Bayley, Charlotte and Tim Benton, John Brandon-Jones, Roderick Gradidge, Alan Powers, Margaret Richardson and David Watkin. A map guide to London in the Thirties concludes the Profile.
- 306 Review
Robert Tavernor: student project