

CONTENTS

312 Letters/Errata

Round-up

An Image for Britain: results of the 1979 H H Robertson Competition. Spirits, Ghosts and Gods: Chris Fawcett discusses two recent houses by Japanese architect Toyokazu Watanabe.

314 Technology and the Crisis of Place: In this transcript of a lecture delivered at Art Net, Kenneth Frampton surveys the profound impact of technology on modern culture in an urban context.

320 Books

The English House, reviewed by Gavin Stamp.

Teoría y Crítica de la Arquitectura, reviewed by Bernardo Moncada.

Déblaiement d'Art, reviewed by Pauline Madge.

The Drawings of Louis Henry Sullivan, reviewed by Stuart Durant.

De Architectonische Ruimte and Essai sur l'Architecture, reviewed by Richard Padovan.

The Aesthetics of Architecture, reviewed by David Dunster.

327 Books Received

328 Arts

A selection of architectural images from the recent Paris-Moscow 1900-1930 exhibition at the Pompidou Centre, with brief biographies of key Russian figures.

322 Trondheim Library: Peter Cook and Christine Hawley present a selection of recent drawings intended to complement their competition entry of 1977.

338 Buildings in AD

Conversions and additions to a house in Virginia Water, Surrey by Demetri Porphyrios

342 In Memoriam

A tribute to Gio Ponti, 1891-1979

AD PROFILES 25: AALTO AND AFTER

A survey of Finnish Architecture including detailed descriptions of three buildings representative of critical phases in the career of Alvar Aalto commented on by David Pearson and Steven Groak, together with Aalto's celebrated discourse at the RIBA in 1957 and an excerpt from his own writings. There follows an analysis of several contemporary Finnish architects by Malcolm Quantrill.