

5	Editorial
7	Introduction Richard Patterson
8	Approaching the Void: Can the Tragic Appear in Architecture? Robert Maxwell
15	The Disorder of Order and After John Outram
24	The Virtuous Tower David Hamilton
30	Signs of Tragedy Past and Future: Reading the Berlin Reichstag Tim Martin
36	The Metamorphosis of Tragedy Richard Patterson
44	Death in Venice Helen Castie
52	Introduction to the Holocaust Section Richard Patterson
54	Mapping Tragedy in the US Holocaust Memorial Museum Joan Branham
60	Eisenman's Design for the Berlin Holocaust Memorial – a Modern Statement? Astrid Schmeing
66	The Void that is Subject Richard Patterson
76	Reconstructing Recollection: Making Space for Memory Yael Padan
82	Sacraria , Tragedy and the Interior Narrative Edward Winters
88	Sitting in the White Horse, Thinking about a White Elephant Paul Davies

Guest Editor Richard Patterson

The Tragic in Architecture

Architectural Design +

94+	A Quiet Revolution: Women in French Practice Robert Such
98+	Being There Haig Beck
102+	Two projects in Brasília Thomas Deckker
106+	Practice Profile: General Lighting & Power Ian Borden
110+	Book Review Robert Maxwell
112+	Site Lines: Wandich Summer Residence Sean Stanwick