

4	Editorial Helen Castle
5	Introduction Julia Chance and Torsten Schmiedeknecht
	Part 1: Investigating the Relationships between Architecture and Fame
6	Some Thoughts on Fame and the Institution of Architecture David Dunster
12	Fame versus Celebrity Charles Jencks interviewed by Julia Chance
18	The Architect, Conspicuousness and the Part Played by Fame Royston Landau
	Part 2: Contemporary Architects and their Negotiation with Fame
24	Functional Icons Charles Jencks in Conversation with Lord Foster
34	It is not that difficult to become famous if you really want to Sean Griffiths of FAT in Conversation with Torsten Schmiedeknecht
38	High-Tech Knights Jeremy Melvin
42	Breaking all Taboos John Outram in Conversation with Helen Castle
48	The Face of Jacques Herzog Julia Chance
	Part 3: The Making Famous of Place through the Creation of a Building
54	Fame + Ruins Heinz Schütz
58	Word of Mouth Diller + Scofidio in Conversation with Jayne Merkel
66	Life in the Afternoon Paul Davies
	Part 4: Education and Fame
71	Fame and Fortunes in Architectural Pedagogy Jonathan Harris
	Part 5: Architecture and Fame in the Course of History
75	Architecture in Vogue Jamie Scott
79	Heinrich Klotz and Postmodernism in Germany Torsten Schmiedeknecht
85	Fables of Visibility Pierluigi Serraino
90	Fame + Frank Lloyd Wright Howard Martin

Fame + Architecture

Guest-edited by Julia Chance
and Torsten Schmiedeknecht

96+	Building Profile: The Church of Santa Maria in Marco de Canavezes Jeremy Melvin
101+	Practice Profile: SHoP / Sharples Holden Pasquarelli Craig Kellogg
108+	Highlights from Wiley-Academy
109+	Book Review
110+	Site Lines