

FEATURES

97 Nathan Marsh Pusey Library, Harvard
Cambridge, Massachusetts

By partially burying this three-level library underground and covering its roof with grass, architects Hugh Stubbins and Associates have added essential structure while preserving open space.

141 Functional simplicity in design for earthquakes

In accordance with the Field Act, which outlines the minimum design and construction of all California public schools for earthquake resistance, the Piedmont Junior High School by Chester Bowles replaces an older, outmoded complex.

BUILDING TYPES STUDY 493

127 Public administration buildings

How well are we designing for the public realm? The question of the quality and efficiency of our public architecture has become a subject of increasing concern to professional architects and to the governmental agencies who commission them and use them. Here is a portfolio of recent successes—focusing on medium-size buildings in medium-size towns, the kind the vast majority of architects are working on.

NEXT MONTH IN RECORD

Building Types Study: Airports

With the recent passage of Federal law 94-353, there can be no doubt that the activity in airport construction will quicken. That law will allow a much higher amount of Federal participation in local efforts—up to $500 million this year alone. But what will the new construction be like? Most will not be on the very large all-new projects. In RECORD for October, a few of the probable alternatives will be discussed, and these will range from small new airports to alterations of existing facilities to the construction of new satellites around still-functioning older buildings.

ARCHITECTURAL BUSINESS

63 "How-to" books that belong in the A/E's management library

Current Techniques in Architectural Practice and How to Prepare Professional Design Brochures are two of the latest—and best—books on the subjects, in the opinion of reviewer Bradford Perkins.

65 Some pertinent reminders on contracts

Attorney Charles D. Maurer, Jr., offers some good advice, including an often overlooked basic: always have a contract for design services, even on those small jobs.

67 Building costs
