

CONTENTS

Page 46

Page 58

Page 60

Page 64

FEATURES

- 46 REOPENING AMERICA'S GATES
As renovated by Beyer Blinder Belle and Notter Finegold + Alexander, Ellis Island once again takes its place as a landmark to freedom.
- 58 WOOD CRAFT
Simple materials and skilled craftsmen give Richard C. Meyer's boathouse at St. Andrew's School zest and authority.
- 60 A PLANE SOLUTION
Kuwabara Payne McKenna Blumberg transforms a run-down men's club in downtown Toronto into a finely crafted graphic design studio.
- 64 WINTER QUARTERS
Susan Maxman Architects has provided Philadelphia-area Girl Scouts a year-round cabin complex.
- 68 NEW SCHOOL OF THOUGHT
Paul Segal Associates has turned an abandoned parochial school in New York City into the colorfully kinetic Children's Museum of Manhattan.

BUILDING TYPES STUDY 681

- 75 MULTIFAMILY HOUSING: THE SEARCH CONTINUES
Four low-rise condominium projects—two subsidized and two charging market rates—deal with various aspects of a churning national housing scene.
- 76 Marketing History: The Waterworks, New Hope, Pennsylvania; Cecil Baker & Associates, Architects
- 80 The Return of the Row: Back of the Hill Rowhouses, Boston, Massachusetts; William Rawn Associates, Architects
- 82 Down Home in Maine: Samoset Resort and Village, Rockport, Maine; Sasaki Associates, Architects
- 84 Affordable California Hill Town: Parkview Commons, San Francisco, California; David Baker Associates, Architects

Page 68

Page 75

Page 91

Page 37

BUILDING TECHNOLOGY

- 91 What's This Building Made Of? Recently introduced building materials require architects to ask the right questions.
- 92 GFRC: Thin, Lightweight. Review and case studies of One Bowdoin Square, in Boston, and the San Francisco Marriott Hotel.
- 94 GFRC Molds History. Review and case study of 120 Broadway, in New York City.
- 100 NEW PRODUCTS
Architectural Laminates: A classic decorative finish is revitalized with new patterns, textures, and functions.
- 105 COMPUTER TECHNOLOGY
Software Reviews for Architects: Autodesk AEC Architectural Is Now ASG Architectural. By Steven S. Ross

PRACTICE

- 14 PRACTICE NEWS
- 27 MARKETING
How Three Architects Market Themselves. Concluding article of a series on different marketing approaches. By Nicholas J. Polites
- 31 BUILDING CODES
Federal Building Code: Why Still a No-Go. By M. Stephanie Stubbs and Douglas E. Gordon
- 37 PROFILE
Bill Lacy, Architect of Architects. By David Masello
- 41 OBSERVATIONS
Bofill Plays the Provinces: New work by the Catalan architect is transforming the French city of Montpellier. By Marc Wortman

- | | |
|------------------------|----------------------------|
| 4 Letters | 114 Classified Advertising |
| 21 Design News | 115 Manufacturers' Sources |
| 45 Editorial | 118 Outtakes |
| 110 Product Literature | 120 Advertising Index |
| 113 Calendar | 121 Reader Service Card |

COVER

Ellis Island Restoration, New York City. Technical presentation drawing, ink on vellum, by Beyer Blinder Belle/Notter Finegold + Alexander, Restoration Architects.