

Cover: Karres en Brands

MARC TREIB
Kritische Haltung zeigen
Being critical

6

THORBJÖRN
ANDERSSON 22
*Ein kritischer Blick auf
Landschaftsarchitektur*
A critical view of landscape architecture

Marc Treib

UDO WEILACHER 33
Keine Auszeit für Kritik
No time-out for criticism

Patio de los Naranjos: the subject of criticism? Page 6

Steffen Roth

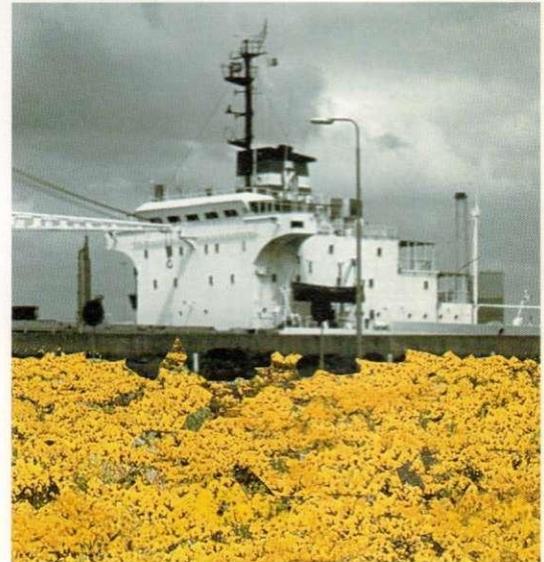

MFO Park: an example of modern open space design in a transitory urban landscape. Much visited and described – and criticised? Page 22

Florian Braun

Deutschlandscape, representing Germany at the 2004 Architecture Biennale in Venice. What criteria does the discourse on landscape architecture apply? Page 33

CHRISTOPHE GIROT 40
Entwicklungen der Landschaftsarchitektur in Europa
Developments in landscape architecture in Europe

Bureau B+B

A lock in IJmuiden: nature and the infrastructure landscape. Landscape architecture is subject to hybridisation. Page 40

CONSTANZE A. PETROW 49
Wieviel Mitsprache verträgt die Baukunst?
 How much participation can architecture stand?

PETER GOODCHILD 66
Komplexität und Kritik in der Landschaftsarchitektur
 Complexities and critique in landscape architecture

Robert Schäfer

Mauerpark Berlin: an open concept, many users, many interests. What part does the designer play? Page 49

CATHERINE DEE 58
Poetisch-kritisches Zeichnen in der Landschaftsarchitektur
 Poetic-critical drawing in landscape architecture

European Landscape Award 2004

European Landscape Award 2004	74
NOEL VAN DOOREN	75
Zeit, Risiko, Handwerk und Flexibilität Time, risk, craftsmanship and flexibility
SYLVIA KARRES	84
BART BRANDS
Reflective progression
Selected projects	100

Chiel van Dieët fotografie

The European Landscape Award 2004 went to Karres en Brands Landschaps-architecten. Page 74

LAB + Bates Smart

The winners of the European Landscape Award 2004 won the first prize for Federation Square in Melbourne in association with LAB Architecture Studio in 1997. Page 75

Editorial	4/5
Short Cuts	102
Authors	108
Translations/ Photo credits/ Bibliography	110
Impressum	112